

Pentyrch seen from Caerhiw in 1900

Sunday afternoon (11th July 1921). Pentyrch War Memorial is unveiled by Thomas Evans JP CBE of Craig y Parc. The memorial, of Cornish grey granite, was designed by James Grey West of Pentyrch, and executed by Morgan Williams, sculptor, of Taff's Well. The dedication was by the Rev Thomas Williams, vicar of the parish. The Garth Male Choir (conductor Mr J Foxhall) gave a rendering of 'Peace to the Souls of the Heroes'. There were eloquent addresses in Welsh (the Rev RG Berry) and in English (Lieutenant-Colonel MEGR Wingfield). 'The Last Post' was sounded
